Hereinafter referred to as the “Lessee”, “Tenant”, “Occupant”, “Resident”, or “Second Party”, which expressions shall, unless repugnant to the context, include her lawful heirs, representatives, successors, and permitted assigns, subject to the personal nature of the residential occupancy granted herein.

The Lessor and Lessee shall collectively be referred to as the “Parties” and individually as a “Party”.

3. Recitals and Preliminary Representations

A. The Lessor represents that it is engaged in the business of residential property dealership, leasing facilitation, tenancy administration, property management, and related estate services.

B. The Lessor states that it has obtained authority from the purported registered owner, Mr. Devendra Prakash Iyer, to market, lease, manage, and administer the residential premises described herein.

C. The Lessee has expressed her intention to occupy the premises exclusively for residential purposes, subject to the covenants, stipulations, restrictions, conditions precedent, and other obligations contained in this Agreement.

D. The Parties acknowledge that the consideration payable under this Agreement comprises monthly rent, a refundable security deposit, an advance maintenance contribution, utility reimbursements, and certain conditional administrative charges.

E. Notwithstanding the foregoing representations, Clause 31 provides that the Lessor shall not be construed as guaranteeing the absolute validity of any ownership document, title instrument, or third-party authorization unless expressly verified by the Lessee.

F. The Parties agree that the operative provisions, schedules, annexures, and subsequent written communications shall be read together, even where their respective provisions may be inconsistent, overlapping, ambiguous, or susceptible to competing interpretations.

PART II: DESCRIPTION OF THE PROPERTY

Clause 1. Identification of the Demised Premises

1.1 The Lessor hereby purports to lease to the Lessee the independent residential house bearing Municipal Property Identification Number BBMP/IND/47/2219, situated at:

House No. 47-B, Cedar Enclave, 6th Main Road, Near Sunrise Park, Indiranagar, Bengaluru, Karnataka – 560038.

1.2 The property comprises:

- Ground floor and first floor residential accommodation.
- Three bedrooms and three attached bathrooms.
- One living room, one dining area, and one kitchen.
- One covered parking space designated P-07.
- A rear utility area and a small garden measuring approximately 180 square feet.
- Fixtures listed in Inventory Schedule A.

1.3 The stated carpet area is approximately 1,650 square feet, whereas the super built-up area is stated to be 2,050 square feet. Rent calculations shall ordinarily be based on the demised premises as a whole and shall not be recalculated solely by reference to carpet area.

1.4 The property shall be used solely as a private residence. Commercial use, subletting, paying-guest accommodation, or use as a registered business address requires the Lessor’s prior written consent.

1.5 The parking space is included in the monthly rent for all purposes, except where Clause 14 permits a separate parking administration charge of ₹1,500 per month.

Clause 2. Commencement, Possession, and Term

2.1 The lease term shall commence on 1 November 2026 and shall expire on 31 October 2028, unless terminated earlier in accordance with this Agreement.

2.2 Physical possession shall be handed over on 1 November 2026, provided the Lessee has paid the security deposit and the first month's rent.

2.3 For accounting purposes, the tenancy shall be deemed to have commenced on 25 October 2026, being the execution date of this Agreement, irrespective of the actual date of delivery of keys.

2.4 The Lessee shall not be liable for rent for any period before physical possession is delivered, except for the advance occupancy consideration specified in Schedule B, which shall be deemed to accrue from the date of execution.

2.5 In the event of a delay in handing over possession, the lease commencement date shall automatically stand postponed by the duration of the delay, without affecting the originally stipulated expiry date of 31 October 2028.

2.6 The Lessor may, by written notice, revise the possession date without postponing the commencement of rent, provided the delay does not exceed fifteen calendar days.

PART III: RENT AND OTHER FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS

Clause 3. Monthly Rent

3.1 The monthly rent for the first twelve-month period shall be ₹32,000 (Rupees Thirty-Two Thousand Only).

3.2 Rent shall be payable in advance on or before the fifth calendar day of each month through bank transfer to the following fictional account:

- Account Name: Cedarstone Homes & Estates Private Limited
- Bank: Meridian Cooperative Bank
- Account Number: 000000123456
- IFSC: MCBK0000001
- Payment Reference: CHE/RES/2026/1048

These details are fictitious and are included solely for document testing.

3.3 The rent for November 2026 shall be payable on 1 November 2026, notwithstanding the general due date specified in Clause 3.2.

3.4 The rent shall be ₹34,000 per month from 1 November 2027, representing an annual escalation of ₹2,000.

3.5 Notwithstanding Clause 3.4, the annual escalation shall be calculated at 10% of the immediately preceding rent, effective on the anniversary of physical possession.

3.6 Any difference arising between the fixed escalation amount and the percentage-based escalation shall be payable retrospectively within seven days of written demand by the Lessor.

3.7 The Lessee shall be entitled to withhold rent in proportion to any material loss of use of the premises caused by a failure of the Lessor to carry out repairs, subject to the limitations in Clause 16.

3.8 The Lessee shall not be entitled to withhold, deduct, set off, or otherwise adjust any rent under any circumstances, including a material breach by the Lessor, except where mandatory applicable law expressly permits such action.

Clause 4. Interest, Late Payment, and Default Charges

4.1 Any rent remaining unpaid after the fifth calendar day of the relevant month shall attract a late-payment charge of ₹500 per day, calculated from the first day of that month.

4.2 Alternatively, late rent shall attract interest at 18% per annum, calculated on a simple-interest basis from the sixth calendar day until realization.

4.3 The Lessor shall apply whichever of the two charges produces the greater amount, unless the Lessee disputes the calculation in writing within forty-eight hours.

4.4 No late fee shall be payable where the delay results exclusively from a banking-system failure, provided the Lessee furnishes documentary evidence within three working days.

4.5 A delay exceeding seven days shall constitute a material default. A delay exceeding thirty days shall be deemed a fundamental repudiatory breach entitling the Lessor to terminate the Agreement without further notice, subject to applicable law.

4.6 A late-payment charge shall not be treated as a penalty, liquidated damages, interest, or a substitute for rent; however, for accounting purposes, it shall be recorded under the category “Additional Rent”.

Clause 5. Security Deposit

5.1 The Lessee shall pay an interest-free, refundable security deposit of ₹1,92,000, equivalent to six months of the initial monthly rent.

5.2 The security deposit shall be paid in two instalments:

- ₹1,00,000 on 25 October 2026.
- ₹92,000 on 1 November 2026.

5.3 The security deposit shall secure the payment of rent, utility bills, damage beyond ordinary wear and tear, unpaid contractual charges, missing inventory items, and any other sum lawfully recoverable under this Agreement.

5.4 The deposit shall be refunded within fifteen calendar days after the Lessee vacates the premises and returns all keys, subject to the deduction of documented and undisputed liabilities.

5.5 Clause 5.4 shall be subject to Clause 5.6, under which the Lessor may retain the entire deposit for a period of ninety days following vacancy to ascertain contingent, unbilled, or subsequently discovered liabilities.

5.6 Any amount not finally determined within ninety days shall be refunded within a further thirty-day period, unless the Lessor has initiated formal recovery proceedings.

5.7 The Lessee shall not treat the deposit as advance rent or appropriate any portion thereof towards the final month's rent without written authorization.

5.8 Notwithstanding Clause 5.7, the Lessor shall be entitled to appropriate the equivalent of one month's rent from the security deposit against the final month's occupancy charges, whether or not the Lessee has vacated the premises by the agreed expiry date.

5.9 Any deductions shall be supported by invoices, quotations, inspection records, or reasonable estimates. Where an estimate is used, the Lessor shall refund any excess deduction upon final settlement.

Clause 6. Advance Rent and Booking Consideration

6.1 On execution, the Lessee shall pay ₹32,000 as advance rent for November 2026.

6.2 The Lessee shall additionally pay a non-refundable booking and documentation consideration of ₹12,000.

6.3 The booking consideration shall be adjustable against the first month's rent if possession is delivered on or before 1 November 2026.

6.4 If possession is not delivered by 1 November 2026, the booking consideration shall be forfeited as an administrative processing charge, irrespective of whether the delay is attributable to the Lessor.

6.5 The advance rent shall be refundable if the Lessor is unable to provide lawful possession, but shall be non-refundable if the Lessee elects not to occupy the premises for personal reasons.

6.6 The booking consideration shall not be considered rent, a security deposit, brokerage, or a penalty, except for tax, accounting, and dispute-resolution purposes where its classification is necessary.

Clause 7. Maintenance Charges

7.1 The Lessee shall pay monthly maintenance charges of ₹3,500, payable together with rent.

7.2 Such maintenance charges shall cover routine cleaning of common access areas, exterior lighting, garden maintenance, and scheduled inspection of common utility infrastructure.

7.3 Structural maintenance, roof waterproofing, replacement of major plumbing lines, and repairs arising from ordinary deterioration shall remain the responsibility of the Lessor.

7.4 The Lessee shall contribute ₹10,000 annually towards extraordinary maintenance, payable on 1 November of each year.

7.5 The annual extraordinary maintenance contribution shall be refundable at the end of the lease, subject to actual expenditure, while the monthly maintenance charges shall be non-refundable regardless of the services rendered.

7.6 The Lessor may revise monthly maintenance charges by up to 15% annually upon thirty days' written notice. No revision shall require the Lessee's consent if the revised charge is supported by an internal company expenditure statement.

Clause 8. Utilities and Reimbursements

8.1 Electricity, piped gas, internet, and individually metered water consumption shall be borne by the Lessee.

8.2 The Lessee shall pay electricity charges according to the actual meter reading, plus a fixed ₹400 monthly meter-administration charge.

8.3 Water charges shall be calculated at ₹250 per occupant per month, subject to a minimum charge of ₹750 per month.

8.4 The Lessor shall pay municipal property tax and any ownership-related statutory levy imposed on the property itself.

8.5 Any increase in municipal property tax shall be reimbursed by the Lessee if the increase occurs during the lease term and is attributable to residential occupation.

8.6 Unmetered utilities shall be allocated according to the ratio of the Lessee's carpet area to the total built-up area of the property, notwithstanding that the premises are an independent house.

8.7 All utility reimbursements shall be paid within ten days of submission of the relevant bill. Where no bill is submitted, the Lessee shall pay the Lessor's estimated monthly amount, subject to later adjustment.

PART IV: RIGHTS, RESTRICTIONS, AND OBLIGATIONS

Clause 9. Permitted Occupants

9.1 The premises shall ordinarily be occupied by the Lessee and one dependent family member.

9.2 Temporary guests may stay for a maximum of seven consecutive nights or fourteen nights in any calendar month.

9.3 A guest staying beyond the stipulated duration shall be deemed an additional occupant, requiring prior written approval and payment of ₹2,000 per person per month.

9.4 The Lessee may accommodate immediate family members without additional charges, provided their stay does not exceed thirty consecutive days.

9.5 For the purposes of this Agreement, "guest", "dependent", "immediate family member", and "additional occupant" shall be interpreted contextually by the Lessor, acting reasonably and consistently with applicable law.

Clause 10. Repairs and Structural Maintenance

10.1 The Lessor shall be responsible for structural repairs, including foundation failure, major roof leakage, structural wall cracks, and defects affecting the safety of the building, except where caused by the Lessee's negligence or misuse.

10.2 The Lessee shall be responsible for minor repairs costing up to ₹2,500 per incident, including replacement of ordinary consumables, minor plumbing adjustments, and damaged internal fittings.

10.3 Any repair exceeding ₹2,500 shall be borne by the Lessor if the repair is structural, and by the Lessee if it arises from use, negligence, misuse, or an accidental event attributable to the Lessee.

10.4 The Lessee shall not engage any contractor without prior written approval. In an emergency, the Lessee may undertake reasonable protective measures and seek reimbursement within seven days.

10.5 No reimbursement shall be payable for emergency expenditure exceeding ₹5,000 unless the Lessor has first approved the expenditure in writing, even if prior approval was impracticable.

10.6 The Lessor shall respond to urgent repair notifications within twenty-four hours and ordinary repair notifications within five working days. Response time shall not be construed as a guarantee of completed repair within that period.

Clause 11. Alterations, Fixtures, and Improvements

11.1 The Lessee shall not alter the structural configuration, external façade, electrical wiring, plumbing infrastructure, or load-bearing components of the premises.

11.2 Non-structural improvements, including curtain rods, removable shelving, and ordinary wall-mounted accessories, may be installed with prior written approval.

11.3 Improvements permanently affixed to the property shall vest in the property owner upon installation without compensation, unless a written agreement provides otherwise.

11.4 Removable fixtures purchased by the Lessee shall remain the Lessee's property, provided their removal does not cause material damage.

11.5 The Lessor may require the Lessee to restore the premises to their original condition at the end of the lease, including removal of approved improvements, at the Lessee's expense.

11.6 The Lessee shall not be required to restore improvements that the Lessor has expressly agreed in writing may remain, except where their continued presence creates a safety or compliance issue.

Clause 12. Inspection and Access

12.1 The Lessor, its authorized representatives, maintenance personnel, or prospective purchasers may enter the premises upon providing at least twenty-four hours' prior notice.

12.2 Inspections shall ordinarily occur between 9:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m.

12.3 In an emergency involving fire, flooding, suspected gas leakage, or imminent danger to persons or property, the Lessor may enter without prior notice, subject to applicable law.

12.4 The Lessee shall not unreasonably refuse access for repairs, statutory inspection, valuation, or verification of compliance with the Agreement.

12.5 During the final sixty days of the lease, the Lessor may conduct viewings for prospective tenants or purchasers up to four times per week.

12.6 The Lessor may retain a duplicate key for emergencies and maintenance access. Such retention shall not confer a general right of unrestricted entry.

Clause 13. Subletting, Assignment, and Change of Occupancy

13.1 The Lessee shall not sublet, license, assign, transfer, share possession, or otherwise create third-party occupancy rights without prior written consent.

13.2 Any purported assignment made without consent shall constitute a material breach and may result in termination in accordance with applicable law.

13.3 A temporary guest arrangement permitted under Clause 9 shall not, by itself, constitute subletting.

13.4 The Lessee shall not advertise the premises on a short-term rental platform or permit paid overnight accommodation.

13.5 The Lessor may assign its contractual rights to an affiliated property management company upon written notice, provided the assignment does not materially diminish the Lessee’s lawful rights.

Clause 14. Parking and Common Facilities

14.1 One covered parking space, P-07, is included in the rent.

14.2 The Lessee shall not store hazardous materials, commercial goods, or abandoned property in the parking space.

14.3 A separate parking administration charge of ₹1,500 per month may be imposed if the property association introduces a charge for parking management.

14.4 Any such charge shall be payable only upon production of documentary evidence of the actual levy and shall not duplicate a charge already included in maintenance.

14.5 The Lessor reserves the right to relocate the parking space to another reasonably comparable space if required for maintenance or safety.

14.6 The Lessee shall not claim compensation for a temporary loss of parking access lasting fewer than seven consecutive days.

Clause 15. Insurance and Indemnification

15.1 The Lessor shall maintain such property insurance as it considers appropriate for the building structure.

15.2 The Lessee shall be responsible for insuring personal belongings, electronic equipment, jewellery, and other movable property.

15.3 The Lessee shall indemnify the Lessor against third-party claims, property damage, reasonable legal expenses, and liabilities arising from the Lessee's negligence, wilful misconduct, or breach of this Agreement.

15.4 The indemnity shall not extend to losses caused solely by the Lessor's negligence, wilful misconduct, or breach of a non-excludable legal duty.

15.5 The Lessee shall notify the Lessor of any incident likely to result in an insurance claim within forty-eight hours of becoming aware of it.

15.6 Neither Party shall be liable for indirect or consequential loss except to the extent such liability cannot lawfully be excluded or arises under an express indemnity provision.

PART V: DEFAULT, TERMINATION, AND VACANT POSSESSION

Clause 16. Habitability and Loss of Use

16.1 The Lessor shall maintain the premises in a condition reasonably suitable for residential occupation, subject to the Lessee's obligations under this Agreement.

16.2 If any part of the premises becomes uninhabitable due to a structural defect not caused by the Lessee, the Parties shall discuss an appropriate rent adjustment.

16.3 A rent reduction shall become effective only after written confirmation by the Lessor, even where the defect materially impairs the use of the premises.

16.4 If the entire premises become uninhabitable, the Lessee may terminate the Agreement by giving seven days' written notice, subject to applicable law.

16.5 Where the defect is capable of repair within seventy-two hours, the Lessor may elect to repair the defect rather than permit termination, provided the Lessee is not deprived of all reasonable residential use during the repair period.

16.6 The Lessee shall not be entitled to a rent reduction for inconvenience, temporary noise, or loss of a non-essential facility unless expressly approved in writing.

Clause 17. Lock-in Period

17.1 The Agreement shall contain a lock-in period of six months commencing on 1 November 2026 and ending on 30 April 2027.

17.2 During the lock-in period, the Lessee shall not terminate the Agreement for convenience without paying compensation equivalent to three months' rent.

17.3 The Lessor may terminate the Agreement during the lock-in period by providing thirty days' written notice, provided the Lessee's accrued rights are settled.

17.4 Notwithstanding Clause 17.2, the Lessee may terminate the Agreement during the lock-in period by giving thirty days' written notice without compensation if the Lessor commits a material breach and fails to remedy it within fifteen days after receiving written notice.

17.5 Clause 17.4 shall not apply to any breach expressly designated as non-material under this Agreement, whether or not such breach materially affects the Lessee's use of the premises.

Clause 18. Termination After the Lock-in Period

18.1 After expiry of the lock-in period, the Lessee may terminate the Agreement by providing sixty days' written notice.

18.2 Alternatively, the Lessee may terminate the Agreement upon thirty days' notice and payment of one month's rent in lieu of the unserved notice period.

18.3 The Lessor may terminate the Agreement for convenience by giving ninety days' written notice.

18.4 The Lessor may terminate for a material breach by the Lessee after providing fifteen days to remedy the breach, unless a shorter period is reasonably required to address an immediate safety risk or mandatory legal requirement.

18.5 Any notice under this Clause shall be delivered by registered post, acknowledged courier, or email to the addresses stated in this Agreement.

18.6 A notice sent by email shall be deemed received on the date of transmission, provided no automated delivery failure notification is received, notwithstanding that the recipient has not opened or read the message.

Clause 19. Consequences of Expiry or Termination

19.1 Upon expiry or valid termination, the Lessee shall vacate the premises, remove personal belongings, return all keys, and deliver vacant possession.

19.2 All outstanding rent, maintenance, utility charges, and other recoverable sums shall become due upon delivery of vacant possession.

19.3 If the Lessee remains in occupation after expiry without a valid extension, the Lessee shall pay use-and-occupation charges equivalent to twice the last applicable monthly rent, calculated proportionately for each day of continued occupation, subject to applicable law.

19.4 Payment of use-and-occupation charges shall not, by itself, constitute renewal or creation of a fresh lease.

19.5 The Lessor shall not unilaterally seize or dispose of the Lessee's belongings except in accordance with applicable law and any lawful process.

19.6 The Lessor shall prepare a final account within fifteen days after vacant possession and return the undisputed balance of the deposit in accordance with Clause 5.

Clause 20. Renewal and Extension

20.1 The Lessee may request renewal by written notice at least ninety days before expiry, namely on or before 2 August 2028.

20.2 Renewal shall be subject to the Lessor’s written approval, satisfactory payment history, and execution of a renewal instrument.

20.3 If the Parties agree to renew, the rent shall increase by 10% over the immediately preceding monthly rent, unless another amount is expressly recorded in the renewal instrument.

20.4 The renewal shall ordinarily be for a further period of eleven months, commencing 1 November 2028, unless the Parties expressly agree on another period.

20.5 Any continued occupation after 31 October 2028 shall be deemed a month-to-month arrangement at the last applicable rent plus 10%, unless a written renewal instrument provides otherwise.

20.6 A renewal request shall not create a binding right to renewal, even if the Lessor has accepted an advance payment expressly described as renewal consideration.

PART VI: DISPUTES, INTERPRETATION, AND MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Clause 21. Force Majeure

21.1 Neither Party shall be responsible for a failure to perform an obligation to the extent caused by an event beyond reasonable control, including natural disasters, civil disturbance, governmental restrictions, or widespread infrastructure failure.

21.2 Force majeure shall not automatically excuse payment of rent for a period during which the premises remain reasonably habitable and available for occupation.

21.3 Where a force majeure event renders the entire premises inaccessible or uninhabitable for more than thirty consecutive days, the Parties shall negotiate a reasonable adjustment or termination.

21.4 No Party may invoke force majeure for a condition that existed and was reasonably foreseeable before execution of this Agreement, unless its consequences materially worsen after execution.

Clause 22. Notices and Communications

22.1 The Lessor’s official email address is leases@cedarstone.example.

22.2 The Lessee’s official email address is meera.sharma@example.test.

22.3 Notices may be served at the physical addresses specified in Part I or through the above email addresses.

22.4 A communication sent through an instant messaging platform shall not constitute formal notice unless the recipient acknowledges it in writing.

22.5 For routine maintenance matters, a message delivered through an instant messaging platform shall be sufficient notice.

22.6 Any change in contact details shall be notified within three working days. Until such notification, communications sent to the previously recorded address shall be deemed validly dispatched, subject to applicable law.

Clause 23. Dispute Resolution and Jurisdiction

23.1 The Parties shall first attempt to resolve any dispute through good-faith negotiation within fifteen days of written notification of the dispute.

23.2 If negotiation fails, the Parties shall attempt mediation before a mutually agreed mediator in Bengaluru.

23.3 If mediation fails or cannot be arranged within thirty days, either Party may pursue remedies available under applicable law.

23.4 The courts of competent jurisdiction in Bengaluru, Karnataka, are designated as the preferred forum for disputes arising from this Agreement, subject to mandatory jurisdictional rules.

23.5 Any dispute involving a question of title, ownership, registration, eviction, or statutory tenancy rights shall remain subject to the jurisdiction and procedures prescribed by applicable law.

23.6 The Lessor’s internal grievance committee may issue an administrative determination regarding maintenance accounts, but such determination shall not exclude the jurisdiction of a competent court or tribunal.

Clause 24. Governing Law and Statutory Compliance

24.1 This Agreement shall be interpreted in accordance with the applicable laws of India and Karnataka.

24.2 The Parties shall comply with applicable requirements concerning registration, stamp duty, lawful possession, residential use, and any legally required disclosures.

24.3 The Parties acknowledge that the legal consequences of a lease may depend on its duration, substantive terms, execution, registration, and the application of relevant statutory provisions.

24.4 No provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted as authorizing unlawful eviction, unlawful retention of a deposit, unauthorized entry, or the waiver of a right that cannot legally be waived.

24.5 Any provision that is held unenforceable shall, to the extent legally permissible, be severed without automatically invalidating the remainder of the Agreement.

Clause 25. Entire Agreement and Amendments

25.1 This Agreement, its schedules, annexures, inventory, possession memorandum, and signed addenda constitute the entire agreement between the Parties concerning the premises.

25.2 Any amendment must be made in writing and signed by both Parties, except for operational instructions and administrative notifications expressly permitted under this Agreement.

25.3 An internal company circular may clarify administrative procedures but shall not amend a material financial obligation unless incorporated through a valid written amendment.

25.4 If a subsequent signed addendum conflicts with an earlier clause, the addendum shall ordinarily prevail only to the extent of the express inconsistency.

25.5 No failure or delay in exercising a contractual right shall be treated as an automatic waiver of that right.

Clause 26. Interpretation and Order of Precedence

26.1 The headings are included for convenience and shall not independently determine the meaning of any provision.

26.2 Words importing the singular shall include the plural where context permits, and references to any gender shall include all genders.

26.3 The expressions “shall”, “may”, “must”, and “is entitled to” shall be interpreted according to their ordinary legal meaning and the context of the relevant clause.

26.4 In the event of inconsistency, the following order of precedence shall apply:

a. A subsequently executed written addendum.

b. The main body of this Agreement.

c. Schedule B, concerning financial particulars.

d. Schedule A, concerning inventory and condition of the premises.

e. Routine correspondence and internal administrative records.

26.5 Notwithstanding Clause 26.4, Schedule B shall prevail over the main body in respect of all monetary matters, including rent, deposit, maintenance, late fees, and escalation, irrespective of whether a financial provision in the main body is more specific.

26.6 No provision shall be construed against a Party solely because that Party prepared or supplied the original draft, except where a contrary rule is imposed by applicable law.

Clause 27. Waiver, Estoppel, and Course of Dealing 27.1 Acceptance of delayed rent on any occasion shall not constitute a permanent waiver of the prescribed payment date.

27.2 Repeated acceptance of late payments over three consecutive months shall, for administrative purposes, establish a customary payment arrangement unless the Lessor issues a written reservation of rights.

27.3 A customary arrangement shall not amend the Agreement unless the requirements for a valid amendment are satisfied.

27.4 No oral assurance, informal representation, or course of dealing shall override an express written term, except where applicable law provides otherwise.

Clause 28. Confidentiality and Records

28.1 The Parties shall use personal information disclosed under this Agreement only for legitimate purposes connected with property management, payment administration, compliance, and dispute resolution.

28.2 Either Party may disclose relevant information to professional advisers, financial institutions, public authorities, or courts where reasonably necessary or legally required.

28.3 The Lessor may retain payment records, inspection reports, and communications for seven years after the expiry or termination of this Agreement, or for a longer period where legally required.

28.4 Nothing in this Clause shall prevent a Party from producing this Agreement as evidence in a lawful proceeding.

Clause 29. Execution, Witnesses, and Copies

29.1 The Parties state that they have had the opportunity to read this Agreement and seek independent advice before execution.

29.2 The Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be treated as an original for evidentiary purposes, subject to applicable legal requirements.

29.3 Electronic signatures and electronic records may be used where legally valid and appropriate for the instrument concerned.

29.4 The Parties shall obtain appropriate advice regarding applicable stamp duty, registration, and execution formalities before treating this fictional template as a real legal instrument.

Clause 30. Representations Regarding Title and Authority

30.1 The Lessor represents that it has authority to facilitate the lease and deliver possession, subject to the terms of any relevant authorization.

30.2 The Lessee acknowledges that the Lessor is a property dealership company and may not itself hold registered ownership of the premises.

30.3 Upon reasonable written request, the Lessor shall provide available documentation evidencing its authority to lease the premises.

30.4 The Lessor does not warrant that every third-party document or municipal record is free from error, provided that this disclaimer shall not excuse fraud, intentional misrepresentation, or a breach of a mandatory legal obligation.

30.5 If the Lessor is unable to establish lawful authority to grant possession, the Parties shall address the resulting consequences under applicable law, including any applicable refund or termination rights.

Clause 31. Limitation of Reliance

31.1 The Lessee confirms that she has not relied solely upon oral statements, advertisements, brochures, photographs, or representations not incorporated into this Agreement.

31.2 No disclaimer in this Clause shall validate a fraudulent statement or extinguish a right that cannot legally be excluded.

31.3 The Lessee may request written clarification of any material term before making payment.

31.4 The Lessor's failure to respond to a clarification request shall not automatically constitute acceptance of the Lessee's interpretation.

Clause 32. Final Settlement and Survival

32.1 Obligations concerning unpaid rent, utilities, documented damage, confidentiality, indemnification, and dispute resolution shall survive expiry or termination to the extent necessary for their enforcement.

32.2 Any surviving monetary claim shall be subject to applicable limitation periods and other mandatory legal requirements.

32.3 The final settlement statement shall identify the amount of the deposit received, deductions proposed, amounts paid, and the net balance payable to either Party.

32.4 A final settlement statement shall be treated as provisional if a utility bill or other contingent liability remains unascertained, subject to the refund obligations in Clause 5.
